ABOUT THE SAFETY HARBOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Safety Harbor Historical Society is a group that is dedicated to preserving the history and traditions of Safety Harbor.

The Historical Society provides public outreach to the community on events of educational and historic significance.

Are you someone who is interested in the history of our city and is willing to participate in or volunteer for Historical Society sponsored events? For more information on meeting dates and times, contact Shannon Schafer at 727-724-1562 or sschafer@cityofsafetyharbor.com

If you are looking to place a historical marker, contact the Museum at 724-1562 for more information. Our Historical Marker application is online at: www.safetyharbormuseum.com just click on ‘Historical Markers’ in the sidebar and scroll to the bottom.
