

What is the Friends?

The Friends of the Library is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization that raises money through quarterly book sales, an in-house Book Store, City of Safety Harbor 3rd Friday sales, and other events allowing them to contribute to services and funding to supplement the Library's budget.

Who are Friends?

People from all walks of life who use and love the library and want to make a difference.

Friends participate in various committees and library functions that contribute services and capital beyond the Library's annual budget.

How can I be a Friend?

Share a little bit of your time or talent toward a Friends committee or function or just become a member and your dues will aid our mission.

What do the Friends do?

- Sponsor and support summer reading and other library programs for youth and adults
- Hold quarterly book sales to raise funds for Library programs and materials
- Maintain a year-round Book Store, selling books, CDs, magazines, etc.
- Serve as Library advocates in the community

Donations are tax deductible and can be made online via Network for Good on www.FriendsSafetyHarborLibrary.org

How can I help?

There are many different ways to help the Friends.

- Use your talents to volunteer once a week, once a month, or during quarterly Book Sales
- Begin a new project to help the Friends raise money for the Library
- Design a Friends Newsletter or Blog to spread FOL news
- Sort through donated items for Book Sales or the Friends Book Store
- Volunteer to represent the Friends at City events and Library functions
- Plan for future Friends events and fundraisers
- Bring your new ideas to meetings
- Just become a member and your dues will support the Library

Make a difference for the Library by giving your time and support to the Friends!

When do the Friends Meet?

Meetings are held the first Tuesday every month, 5:30 pm, at the Library. If there is a change of date and time, members are notified via email.

Occasionally there will be an additional meeting to discuss an upcoming project or special event.
