205.0535 Reclassification and rate structure revisions.

(5) No tax receipt shall be issued unless the federal employer identification number or social security number is obtained from the person to be licensed.

119.0721 Social Security Number Exemption.

(8) An agency shall not collect an individual's social security number unless authorized by law to do so or unless the collection of the social security number is otherwise imperative for the performance of that agency's duties and responsibilities as prescribed by law. Social security numbers collected by an agency must be relevant to the purpose for which collected and shall not be collected until and unless the need for social security numbers has been clearly documented. Any agency that collects social security numbers shall also segregate that number on a separate page from the rest of the records, or as otherwise appropriate, in order that the social security number be more easily redacted, if required, pursuant to a public records request. An agency collecting a person's social security number shall, upon that person's request, at the time of or prior to the actual collection of the social security number by that agency, provide that person with a statement of the purpose or purposes for which the social security number is being collected and used. Social security numbers collected by an agency shall not be used by that agency for any purpose other than the purpose stated. Social security numbers collected by an agency prior to May 13, 2002, is found to be unwarranted; the agency shall immediately discontinue the collection of social security numbers for that purpose.
